

TO KENNARD H. CARLISLE,
of the "Mirror Quartette."

The Spot where Mother lies.
Song and Chorus

WORDS BY

EDWARD ATKINS.

MUSIC BY

HOWARD S. VICKERS.

Author of CHARMING LITTLE NORA CLARE.

PIANO.

32

GUITAR.

St. Louis, Balmer & Weber, Publishers.

Copyright 1883 by Balmer & Weber.

1883
VICK

To KENNARD K. CARLISLE, of the "Mirror Quartette."

THE SPOT WHERE MOTHER LIES.

SONG AND CHORUS.

Words by EDWARD ATKINS.

Music by HOWARD S. VICKERS.

Moderato.

Piano or Organ.

Voice.

1 'Way out to Greenwood she is laid, Her whom I lov'd the
2 I miss that gen-tle, kind ad-vice, That none but her could
3 'Tis oft fond vis-ions bring to view Bright scenes of child-hood

Piano or Organ.

best, Her si - - lent form the tomb now holds,— Her give, The hand that point-ed out to me A days, That once bright, hap-py fire - side, A

Copyright, 1883, by BALMER & WEBER.

ev - er - last - ing rest ; And, oft - en, when the ros - es right - eous life to live ; I miss that nev - er-frowning moth - er's lov - ing ways ; But from that home of hap - pi send Their per - fume to the skies, In brow, The ten - der, lov - ing eyes ; And

 - ness No joy - ful scenes now rise ; And sol - i-tude I sit down by The spot where moth - er lies.

 Green - wood's grassy mound now marks The spot where moth - er lies.
 oft I wan-der out to view The spot where moth - er lies.

The Spot Where Mother Lies.

CHORUS.

5

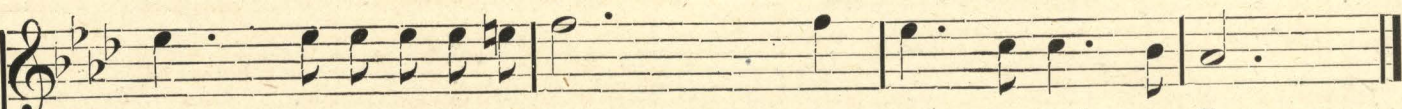

Sopr'o.
 'Tis oft - en that I wander there, Quite free from pry - ing eyes, And

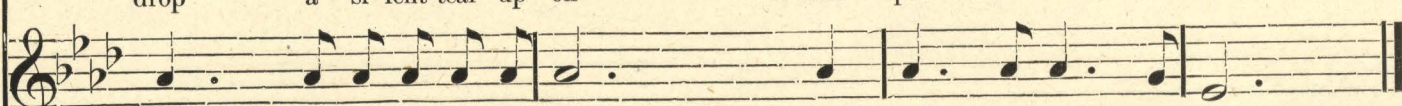

Alto.

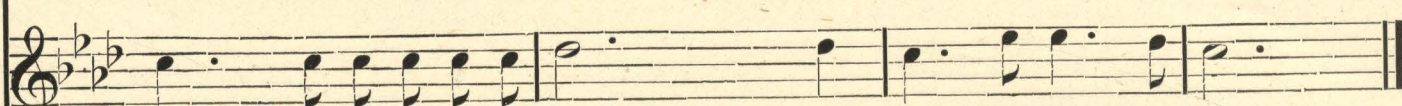

Tenor.
 'Tis oft - en that I wander there, Quite free from pry - ing eyes, And

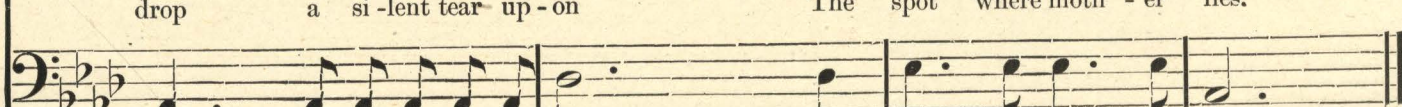

Bass.

Piano or Organ.
p

 drop a si-lent tear up-on The spot where moth - er lies.

 drop a si-lent tear up-on The spot where moth - er lies.

Play Symphony as before.

The Spot Where Mother Lies.

J. M. ARMSTRONG & CO., MUSIC TYPOGRAPHERS, Philadelphia, Pa.

A PET SONG WITH EVERYBODY,

By the same Author, "CHARMING LITTLE NORA CLARE," Price, post-paid, 40 cents.

